How to play ?

Goal : Be the last player standing with at least one dice remaining

How :

At the beginning of the game : All players have 5 dices each whose values are randomly drawn

- Other player's turn : Simply wait for your turn, you can still chat with other
- Your turn ⇒ 2 choices :

> Make a bet :

Bet how many dice of your choice value are among all the dice of all players, if you are the first player, you are free to bet how many dice of any value. If a bet is already made, you must make a more 'risky' bet by increasing either the number of dice or the value of the dice.

> Accuse the previous player:

- Special Case : if there are only 2 players who each have 1 dice, the players bet on the total value of the two remaining dice. The one closest to it wins.
